

See you on the Backlot

Thomas Nealeigh

220pp ISBN: 9781841677187 £5.99

Tony, not yet 15 years old, travels the country as part of the carnival sideshow owned by his father, Charlie. Dubbed 'The Clown Prince of the Sideshow' by the other carnies, and with cheering crowds, endless adventure, and thrills at every turn, Tony's life may seem like a dream. But once the lights are off, the show is closed, and the townies have gone home, the reality of life on the road has its sinister side.

The Only Brother

Caias Ward

184pp ISBN: 9781841677194 £5.99

Always feeling distant from his family, Andrew faces the shock of his life when his better-liked, older brother William dies suddenly. The stresses of normal teen life are compounded by the demands his family now place on him and the loss of any chance to reconcile with his brother, now lying brain-dead in a hospital bed, who was one person to him and someone vastly different to everyone else.

Seeing Red

Peter Lancett

220pp ISBN: 9781841676968 £5.99

Defined by the cut and the cloth, and the labels – that's the way Tom Hathaway likes it. And that's the way it is when your parents have money, but no time for you, and you have style. But then Tom meets the mysterious, intriguing, and scarred, Sylvia. Increasingly drawn to the cut of the flesh rather than the cut of the cloth, he discovers a more complicated, and harmful side to life – and himself.

The Questions Within

Teresa Schaeffer

144pp ISBN: 9781841677002 £5.99

For most of her childhood Constance has felt like an outcast; a loner. She's not quite like other girls: somehow she's 'different', and it's not just that she's a tomboy. But when Constance meets new boyfriend Sean, things seem set to change – for the better. Or do they? So begins a journey through anger, shame, and loneliness – to a gradual realisation that brings both strength and pride; a journey to answer those questions within.

A Forgotten Tomorrow

Teresa Schaeffer

est. 216pp ISBN: 9781841678825 £5.99

After escaping an abusive past, seventeen year old Savannah lives on the street, working as a prostitute. After a chance meeting with Jonah, a counsellor, she has the chance to start a new life. Struggling to accept the things she cannot change, she rejects Jonah, and sinks further into depression. Then Elijah, her only friend, is murdered by a vicious street gang, and suddenly she is alone, fighting the painful memories that haunt her.

Hanging in the Mist

Peter Lancett

est. 208pp ISBN: 9781841678795 £5.99

Living high in a crumbling tower block is no laugh. Throw in parents more interested in crack than you, and life can seem barely worth the living. Especially when they sell your prize possessions to feed their habit. Or when they turn you over to the police rather than take the rap for their own crimes. No wonder you'd rather be someone else. But being someone else isn't always the answer. There's always a price to pay for being different.

Breaking Dawn

Donna Shelton

144pp ISBN: 9781841676999 £5.99

It's so cool having a really close friend. Someone you can share secrets with, someone you can trust. But what happens when your trust is broken and secrets become public knowledge? Sometimes the consequences just become too much to bear. Dawn and Perry are best friends. Until Brian happens. Suddenly there's not enough time for Perry: just when he needs her most. And so begins Dawn's battle through guilt and despair to find life again – a life after loss.

Thrill Seekers

Edwina Shaw

est. 224pp ISBN: 9781841678801 £5.99

His Dad dead, Brian promises to take care of his Mum and little brother Dougie. But it's a lot tougher than he expected; especially when Dougie takes to sculling casks of wine, and doing drugs with his mates. Then Dougie starts hearing voices, and the paranoia sets in. There's nothing Brian can do as he watches Dougie and his mates spiral out of control. That is until one night, tripping on acid, Dougie loses control.

Gun Dog

Peter Lancett

208pp ISBN: 9781841677132 £5.99

Stevie dreams of escaping the rough, miserable, violent estate where he lives. But those dreams are threatened when a local gang leader gives him a gun for safe-keeping. Intoxicated by the apparent power the gun brings him in the local community, he is drawn down a perilous path. Can the gun open the door to deliver the freedom he's been dreaming of? Or will it throw away the key for good?

“Gun Dog is probably one of the best books I have read. It has a great storyline and plot and I liked how it leads you on bit by bit and how each chapter leaves you on a cliff hanger wanting to read more”
