Advanced Information

Readership

Reluctant and struggling readers aged 8 - 14 years. Reading age of the text: 6 - 8 years.

Six new edition of titles in this popular series. The books are ideal for reluctant and struggling readers.

Each book is about a adrenalin filled activity or sport. These books are non-fiction, but are presented in a story form. Using real-life photographs and comic-format speech bubbles, the books are narrated by a participant in the activity.

You couldn't get closer to the action – and the visual form makes them the perfect read to develop struggling readers' literacy skills.

The books have all been rewritten to ensure they meet the criteria for the bookband scheme for reading in schools. They are also now in a new larger format, which really brings the fantastic images to life.
