

GNABRY

ACTIVITY CARD!

Can you solve the Serge-themed anagram?

NEW RIG

Fill in the gaps

top

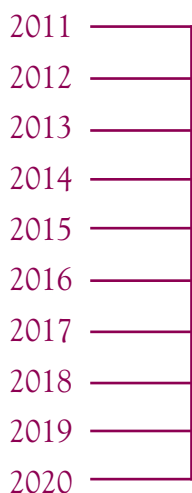

trio

front

Coman

Together with Lewandowski and _____ he was now a key player in Bayern's prolific _____ three, a _____ that had powered the club to the _____ of the table.

After arriving in England, Serge's career was anything but smooth sailing! Write down two challenges he had to overcome — then link each challenge to the year it happened on the timeline. (We've done one for you to get you going!)

Challenge: Finding his feet at Arsenal — a club where he was no longer "the best".

Challenge: _____

Challenge: _____

Close your eyes and think of a time when you've been challenged in your life. Write down what the challenge was and how you overcame it.

Challenge: _____

How I overcame it: _____

QUIZ-OFF

How well do you know Serge's story?

- 1) As a child Serge was particularly gifted at football – and what other sport? _____
- 2) Which future superstar (and Arsenal team-mate) did Serge meet at a youth tournament in Germany? _____
- 3) Which club's academy did Serge attend? _____
- 4) Serge's first goal for Arsenal made him their youngest ever Premier League goalscorer – true or false? _____
- 5) What colour medal did Serge win at the 2016 Olympics? _____

Scout out this sentence for spelling mistakes.

Circle any you find and write the correct spellings alongside.

“The best place to put a cross is far enough away from the keeper so that he can't come out and cach it, but not to close to the defenders so that they can head it cleer.”

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Imagine you are Serge.

You've just finished your “crossing lesson” with Mesut (Chapter 10) and thought you'd drop by Wenger's office to ask for more game-time. (Again!)

But, Wenger's not in ...

Write a persuasive letter to slip under his door, asking for more than 5 minutes in the next match.

