

What does the recent government announcement mean for my school?

Does your school receive support through the English Hubs programme?

Yes

No

By February 2022, you will need to be using a validated SSP programme.

Are you getting great phonics results? Is your phonics teaching complying with Ofsted's latest guidance?

No

Yes

After Spring 2022, the Department will be strongly encouraging you to use an SSP programme from their validated list (although it is not compulsory).

There is no expectation for you to change your approach to teaching phonics or use an SSP programme. As long as your answer to this question is 'yes', you are free to keep doing what you're doing!

Currently using Letters and Sounds 2007? You'll be happy to hear that Ransom have teamed up with two English Hubs to develop a complete SSP programme that follows the Letters and Sounds 2007 progression – and is perfectly aligned to our Reading Stars Phonics readers...

Meet Unlocking Letters and Sounds!

Currently using Letters and Sounds 2007? You'll love Reading Stars Phonics – Ransom's fully decodable readers that are expertly aligned to the programme on a week-by-week basis.

And if you ever want to move to a complete SSP programme, they've got you covered with Unlocking Letters and Sounds!